CHANDIGARH ADMINISTRATION
TRANSPORT DEPARTMENT

Notification

The 18th April, 2023

No. 1/5/7-H-III (7)-2023/5285.—In pursuance of the notification issued by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways, Govt. of India vide No. G.S.R. 720(E), dated 05.10.2021, the Administrator, Union Territory, Chandigarh is pleased to fix the concession in the Motor Vehicle Tax in Union Territory, Chandigarh, in case the vehicle is registered against submission of "Certificate of Deposit" issued by the Registered Vehicle Scrapping Facility to the owner of a vehicle when he / she deposits the vehicle with the Registered Vehicle Scrapping Facility for scrapping, as under :—

- (a) 25% in case of non transport vehicle
- (b) 15% in case of transport vehicle

The abovementioned concession shall be admissible only in case the vehicle registered is of same category and class as has been scrapped by the owner of the vehicle meaning thereby the concession on registration of non-transport vehicle shall be given on scrap of non-transport vehicle and concession on registration of transport vehicle shall be given on scrap of transport vehicle only provided the vehicle is of same class. i.e. concession on registration of two wheeler is admissible against the scrapping of two wheeler and concession on registration of four wheeler shall be given on scrapping of four wheeler only.

HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Notification

The 19th April, 2023

No. 63 Rules/XI.Y.16.—The following amendment in the provisions of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the Union Territory, Chandigarh, after publication of draft Notification No. 157 Rules/XI.Y.16 dated 21.09.2013 in the Government Gazette of Union Territory, Chandigarh and with the approval of the Government of India, is hereby published for general information under the provisions of Section 127 of the said Code read with Rule 6, Chapter 9-B of the Rules and Orders of Punjab and Haryana High Court, Volume-V :—

In Order XXI CPC, after Rule 35(3), sub-rule (4) is inserted in the following manner :-

" Where at the time of delivery of possession of immovable property, it is found that there are movable(s) lying in that property to which the decree holder has no claim and the judgment-debtor is absent, or if present, does not immediately remove the same, the officer entrusted with the warrant for delivery of possession shall make an inventory of the articles so found, with their probable value, in the presence of respectable persons on the spot, and have the same attested by them. The movable(s) shall be either handed over to some respectable person on sapurdari or shall be given in the custody of the decree holder after taking a bond from him for the safe custody of those articles, pending orders of the Court for disposal of the same.

The officer shall then make a report accompanied by such inventory, to the Court.

The Court shall, thereupon, issue a notice to the judgment-debtor/his counsel requiring him to take delivery of the said movable within fifteen days from the date of notice. It shall be specified in the notice that in default of the judgment debtor/his counsel responding to the notice, the articles shall be sold in public auction at the risk and cost of judgment debtor and the proceeds applied for meeting all legitimate expenses of custody and sale. The balance, if any, shall be deposited in Court and refunded to the Judgment-debtor:

Provided that if movable articles referred to above are perishable, the officer shall sell them in public auction immediately, and bring the proceeds into Court. The notice to the Judgment-debtor shall in such a case call upon him to receive the amount from Court within three months."

BY ORDER OF HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE AND JUDGES
